

THE REALITY OF PSYCHOTRONIC WEAPONS TODAY!

Poll: Most Americans Feel Threatened By the Government

A new survey from Pew Research Center finds more than half of Americans believe the government threatens their personal rights. The national survey marks the first time a majority of Americans have viewed the government as a threat since Pew began tracking public opinion on the subject in 1995.

Welcome to IDAHO

ATTENTION CRIMINALS & TERRORISTS

Over 170,000 Idaho Residents Have A Permit to Legally Carry A Concealed Weapon, About 60% Of The rest of the Population Is Armed But Have Not Bothered to Purchase the License As It Is Not A Requirement To Carry A Firearm. Understand, A Substantial Portion Of The Population Is Armed And Prepared To Defend themselves And Others Against Acts of Criminal Violence.

YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED!

However, California, New York and Illinois have disarmed their citizens for your convenience.

The outgoing Homeland Security Secretary has a warning for her successor: A massive and “serious” cyber attack on the U.S. homeland is coming, and a natural disaster — the likes of which the nation has never seen — is also likely on its way.

ELECTROMAGNETIC ENERGY WEAPONS

Project Soul Catcher: Secrets of Cyber and Cybernetic Warfare Revealed reveals the cybernetic mind control by the CIA and their use of psychotronic weapons and their pursuit to weaponize neurpsychology.

ELECTROMAGNETIC SATELLITE TECHNOLOGY

THE NEUROPHONE:US Patent # 3,393,279.

July 16th, 1968

It's a device that converts sound to electrical impulses sometimes called the "Voice of God" or makes the person think he is crazy. When the signals are sent to the brain, it makes a person think that God is speaking to him/her or even an "alien." It targets the unique bioelectrical resonance frequency using his "vibrational pattern" in the brain called a "signature" and it acts like an audio receiver.

THE PSYCHO-ACOUSTIC PROJECTOR:

U.S. patent #3,566,347, (23/2/71)

A device/weapon which can actually deafen the target.

SILENT SUBLIMAL MESSAGES: US Patent # 5,159,703. October 27th, 1992

Non aural carriers in extreme audio frequency ranges are amplified or modulated with the desired material and propagated acoustically for direct inducement into the brain. This is an excellent method of influencing people without their knowledge and is used in advertising.

METHODS AND SYSTEMS OF ALTERING CONSCIOUSNESS:

US Patent # 5,123,844. June 23rd, 1992

US Patent # 5,289,438. February 22nd, 1994

These systems stimulate the brain with different frequencies and wave forms to alter the subject's state of consciousness.

Electro Magnetic Field (EMF) monitoring/interference is one of the most insidious and secretive of all methods used by the agencies.

MICROWAVE WEAPONS: "A hearing system" U.S. patent #4,877,027, 31/10/89 & "A hearing device" U.S. patent #4,858,612, 22/8/89.

The first known experiment with microwaved voices was conducted by Sharp and Grove in the early 70's. However, the Defence Intelligence Agency and ARPA (The Advanced Research Projects Agency) are principally to blame for the abuse of such technologies since. eg Project Pandora etc. The CIA's Langley Research Center as well as numerous scientists working in Energy/Defence department labs across the U.S. are also responsible.

BRAIN WAVE MONITORS/ANALYSERS

When the brain wave pattern of an individual is detected from the use of one of numerous types of detectors such as a satellite, these brainwave signals are sent to a monitor with a computer.

These brain wave patterns are interpreted through a brain wave vocabulary that records the thoughts into words. The NSA monitors the brainwaves of their targets by satellite and decode the evoked potentials (3.50Hz 5 milliwatts) that the brain emits.

So, using lasers / satellites and high-powered computers, the agencies have now gained the ability to decipher human thoughts - and from a considerable distance almost instantaneously.

Psychotronic Weapons

Russian former Prime Minister Dmitry Medvedev with a psychotronic gun

Psychotronic Guns by Thor Jensen

This is still an in-development project, but the potential for mayhem is unimaginable. Russia is currently working on weapons that employ electromagnetic radiation to directly affect the central nervous system – the root of all sensory processing – in a variety of unpleasant ways. The weapon will most likely build on existing research that shows the ability of low-frequency microwaves to affect brain function, alter moods and transmit false sensory data. Although this may all seem like X-Files stuff, the scientific basis is there. It's up to some unscrupulous weapons designer to put it into practice.

Long Range Acoustic Device

Sound waves have the potential to deal tremendous damage at loud enough amplitudes – think about a sonic boom, for instance. But you don't need a jet engine to turn sound into a weapon. The Long Range Acoustic Device is a creation of the American technology Corporation that was originally designed to defend safe zones around boats. It produces an incredibly loud noise that can travel almost 1000 feet in a targeted beam, and if the frequency is amplified enough it can cause legitimate physical pain in its victims.

Dazer Laser

Of all the senses you use on the battlefield, vision is probably the most important. So disrupting that can turn the tide in war. One of the most effective sensory weapons on the market right now is the Dazer Laser, made by Laser Energetics. Using a green laser source that emits both a continuous and pulsed wave, the range on the unit can be adjusted to as far as 2400 meters. One shot of the laser targeted at the eye area can completely incapacitate the victim for several minutes, long enough for them to be subdued non-lethally.

Distributed Sound And Light Array Debilitator

The most effective sensory weapons are ones that can engage and disorient multiple methods of input as well. Colloquially known as the “puke ray,” the Distributed Sound And Light Array Debilitator generates sound and light in a specific sequence designed to overload the brain’s processors, generating feelings of unease and discomfort. Prolonged exposure can result in even more unpleasant effects, including nausea and vomiting. Some scientists are even working towards producing a portable version the size of a flashlight that can be used on an individual basis.

Pulsed Energy Projectiles

The sensory organ with the largest active area in the body is, of course, the sense of touch. The human body has millions of individual nerves that are used to transmit sensory data to the brain, and a new experimental weapon from the U.S. government aims to really get them going. Pulsed energy projectiles are a specially-modulated laser that generates a burst of expanding plasma when they hit a solid object. That plasma in turn emits an electromagnetic pulse that causes immediate, searing pain to nerve cells all over the target's body. They're not in use yet, but research has been very promising.

MEDUSA

One of the most interesting sensory weapons on the market uses audio to disorient and confuse targets, but it skips the ear entirely. MEDUSA, a product of the Sierra Nevada Corporation, doesn't create sound in a conventional way. Instead, it uses pulses of microwave radiation to generate shockwaves inside the skull that are detected by the ears from within – so earplugs won't help you at all. It can generate painful white noise and even recognizable speech that sounds like it's coming from the inside of your brain. Scary stuff.

"The Mind Has No Firewall" Army article on psychotronic weapons (Parameters)

The human body, much like a computer, contains myriad data processors. They include, but are not limited to, the chemical-electrical activity of the brain, heart, and peripheral nervous system, the signals sent from the cortex region of the brain to other parts of our body, the tiny hair cells in the inner ear that process auditory signals, and the light-sensitive retina and cornea of the eye that process visual activity.

We are on the threshold of an era in which these data processors of the human body may be manipulated or debilitated. Examples of unplanned attacks on the body's data-processing capability are well-documented. Strobe lights have been known to cause epileptic seizures. Not long ago in Japan, children watching television cartoons were subjected to pulsating lights that caused seizures in some and made others very sick.

TYPES OF PSYCHOTRONIC WEAPONS

A psychotronic generator produces a powerful electromagnetic emanation capable of being sent through telephone lines, TV, radio networks, supply pipes, and incandescent lamps.

An autonomous generator is a device that operates in the 10-150 Hertz band. At the 10-20 Hertz band, it forms an infrasonic oscillation that is destructive to all living creatures.

A nervous system generator is designed to paralyze the central nervous systems of insects which could have the same applicability to humans.

Ultrasound emanation devices using ultrasound emanations are capable of carrying out bloodless internal operations without leaving a mark on the skin. They can also be used to kill people from a distance.

Noiseless cassettes is the ability to place infra-low frequency voice patterns over music, patterns that are detected by the subconscious. These messages are then stored in a person's sub-conscious mind which they may later act upon.

MICHIGAN LAW AGAINST ELECTROMAGNETIC DEVICES

House Bill 4513 would amend the penal code (MCL 750.200h) to define “harmful electronic or electromagnetic device” as a device designed to emit or radiate an electronic or electromagnetic pulse or signal or microwave intended to cause harm to others or cause damage to, destroy, or disrupt any electronic or telecommunications system or device including a computer or computer network. The bill would also include a harmful electronic or electromagnetic device in the definition of “imitation harmful substance or device.”

The Nuremberg Code opposes all forms of human experiments

The state of Missouri has a law against involuntary chipping or implanting of a human

Many countries have laws against human experimentation and the use of electromagnetic devices to control a person either their mind or their bodies

SENATOR JOHN GLENN

Senator Glenn's publicly-expressed outrage that this government has been found to be engaging in brutal forms of involuntary human experimentation, and that any and all forms of this type of experimentation be exposed. He stated that there are experiments with non-ionizing, so-called "non-lethal," directed-energy weapons, surveillance and psychotronic systems. He opposes Microwave Harassment and Mind-Control Experimentation especially connected to Los Alamos National Laboratory, the Department of Energy, the Department of Defense, CIA, and the National Reconnaissance Office. He stated the DOD has increased in the numbers of Ground Wave Emergency Network (GWEN) towers and satellites that qualify as directed-energy emitters, microwave towers, and antennae arrays. John Glenn is also a member of the Electronic Surveillance Project that is trying to stop these forms of harassment and human experimentation.

CITIZENS AGAINST HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSE

Scientists, many of which are Nobel Prize winners, in this Human Rights organization have documented for years the numerous abuses of electromagnetic weapons and electromagnetic radiation (EMR) mind control weapons. Most of the perpetrators of this abuse has been Russia and the United States. The International Red Cross has also verified these offenses.

RUSSIAN DEFENSE MINISTER

In March 2012 the Russian defense minister Anatoli Serdjukov said:

“The development of weaponry based on new physics principles; direct-energy weapons, geophysical weapons, wave-energy weapons, genetic weapons, psychotronic weapons, etc., is part of the state arms procurement program for 2011-2020,” Voice of Russia

EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

A directed energy weapon system is designed to match a radio frequency source to interfere with human brain activity at a synapse level.”

Since 1999 those weapons have been upgraded and should be banned in the world.

UNITED NATIONS

The United Nations also agreed with this report and stated the “United States is the main country of the world to use directed energy weapons and electromagnetic weapons.

The former United States Secretary of Defense William Cohen stated in a press briefing, while commenting on new technological threats possibly held by terrorist organizations: "Others are engaging in an eco-type of terrorism whereby they can alter the climate, set off earthquakes, (and) volcanoes remotely, using the use of electromagnetic waves."

A TARGETED INDIVIDUAL

Targeted Individuals are people who are illegally and covertly stalked, tortured and harassed by the use of hi-tech, Modern-day Military type Technologies (DAARPA, NASA, CIA etc.).

Targets/Victims are usually implanted with RFID (Radio-Remote Frequency Identification Device) type transmitter chips (PositiveID or VERi Chips) and sometimes miniature Nano-Biochips and Stimulators/Transmitters mostly for GPS tracking purposes. Targets can be remotely connected to via radio frequency signals sent to the chip/s thus the mind and body being in theory "wirelessly" connected.. controlled and manipulated.

There are targeted individuals, victims of Psychotronic (or Mind Control, Electronic, Electromagnetic, Directed Energy, Neurological, Non-lethal) Weapons, who are being targeted unjustly or used as human subjects in experiments without their informed consent. Victims of mind/body control detail the most extreme and totalitarian violations of human rights in human history. Criminals may implant people with microchips or nanomaterials and place them under continuous surveillance. They monitor the human brain, continuously alter consciousness and behavior, directly assault and torture mind and bodies of the human subjects.

These are some of the symptoms that targeted individuals may experience:

- a). Microwave hearing, torture with loud noise.
- b). Visual hallucinations, artificial dreams.
- c). Reading thoughts, retrieving memories.
- d). Manipulation of thoughts, will, emotions, desires and perceptions.
- e). Manipulation of human behavior: forced speech, involuntary body movements, transmission of specific commands into the subconscious, compulsory execution of these commands (i.e. the Manchurian Candidate effect).

f). Debilitation of mental acuity, loss of memory.

g). Sleep deprivation or uncontrollable sleep h). Cramps, spasms, excruciating artificial pain in any part of the body, manipulation of body systems, including heart attacks and other serious medical conditions.

Air Delivery
 Researchers are exploring a number of methods for deploying "smart dust." One technique involves the use of tiny, unmanned aircraft that would spray motes over an area like a miniature crop duster and then relay the resulting information back to a base station.

Winged computers
 Researchers are also exploring ways to prolong the time smart dust remains airborne. By adding "wings" like those on maple seeds, the researchers hope to extend that period two- or three-fold.

Gathering Data on the Fly

Researchers at the University of California are developing tiny, electronic devices called "smart dust" designed to capture information about their environment while literally floating in air. Each dust "mote" packs sensors, computers and wireless communicators onto a tiny silicon chip light enough to remain airborne for hours at a time. As the motes drift, they can monitor their surroundings and beam data back to a base station.

Early Prototype
 Smart dust "macro-mote" made with readily available components.

To test their concept, researchers planted golf ball-sized smart dust devices at Twin Peaks and on Coit Tower. Using a modified laser pointer, the device beamed weather information back to Berkeley.

Potential uses

- Military uses include tracking enemy troop movements from above and detecting chemical warfare agents in the air.
- Monitoring weather conditions around the globe and detecting fires and earthquakes are among the nonmilitary uses.
- Stationary motes could be used to monitor the quality of products from factory to consumer.

The technological singularity is a theoretical moment in time when artificial intelligence will have progressed to the point of a greater-than-human intelligence that will "radically change human civilization" according to Amnon Eden. Ray Kurzweil says "revolutions in genetics, nanotechnology and robotics will usher in the beginning of the Singularity." Robots and cybernetic organisms are developing at a very fast pace that is blurring the line between humans and robots.

Bionic Skin for a Cyborg You

Flexible electronics allow us to cover robots and humans with stretchy sensors

One decade ago, my research group at the University of Tokyo created a flexible electronic mesh and wrapped it around the mechanical bones of a robotic hand. We had dreamed of making an electronic skin, embedded with temperature and pressure sensors, that could be worn by a robot. If a robotic health aide shook hands with a human patient, we thought, this sensor-clad e-skin would be able to measure some of the person's vital signs at the same time.

Today we're still working intensively on e-skin, but our focus is now on applying it directly to the human body. Such a bionic skin could be used to monitor medical conditions or to provide more sensitive and lifelike prosthetics.

Gilded skin: Takao Someya's latest e-skin material is one-tenth the thickness of plastic kitchen wrap, and it can conform to any body shape.

Thin-film transistors don't just allow electronics to be flexible—they can also help an e-skin mimic the sensitivity of real skin. Consider this: There are more than 2 million pain receptors in a person's skin, which is equivalent to the number of pixels found in a typical high-definition TV. Synthetic skin covers the circuits that looks like human skin.

Matt,

I am inquiring in regards to the following:

1. Breakdown the total possible servings available for immediately delivery. For example, "averaging 3 servings per meal, 3 times per day, per person = 9 servings per day per person" how many servings can you provide within 24 hours, 48 hours, 72 hours, etc.?
2. Number of currently available meals?
3. Can your current stock begin shipping in 24 hours?
4. Do you ship dedicated truckloads by pallet? If so, how many pallets per truck?
5. At full capacity (assuming all resources are available) how many canned/packageged servings per day can you provide in a 24 hour period?

Please let me know when you have the opportunity.

If there are not real FEMA camps for detainment of American citizens, then why:

- Did Obama sign so many Executive Orders taking away the freedoms of American citizens?
- Did Obama say that anyone who is a threat to American security could be “detained indefinitely?”
- Does Homeland Security avoid answering a direct question about the hundreds of camps that exist?
- Are so many camps totally empty but staffed 24 hours a day?

- Why did they not house a single illegal immigrant of the 12 million that are here in any of these camps even though they say that is what they were built for?
- Why didn't any of those effected by hurricanes go to a FEMA camp?
- Why does Homeland Security keep on building more FEMA camps?
- Why are a majority of these camps designed to hold 20,000 inmates?

- Why aren't the people paid to station these camps informed about the purpose of the camps?
- Why are these camps hiring so many guards recently?
- Why aren't the victims of fires, flooding, tornadoes, and hurricanes taken to any of these camps?
- Why did the sponsors of the bill years ago to build these camps even know what these camps were designed for?

Military ad as it appeared in Government Pub:

Correction Officer Internment / Resettlement Specialist

As an Internment/Resettlement Specialist for the Army National Guard, you will ensure the smooth running of military confinement/ correctional facility or detention/internment facility, similar to those duties conducted by civilian Corrections Officers. This will require you to know proper procedures and military law; and have the ability to think quickly in high-stress situations. Specific duties may include assisting with supervision and management operations; providing facility security; providing custody, control, supervision, and escort; and counseling individual prisoners in rehabilitative programs.

So, why is the National Guard hiring “Internment / Resettlement Specialists?”

<http://intellihub.com/2013/06/13/find-the-fema-camp-nearest-you/>

The White House quietly issued National Security Presidential Directive 51 (NSPD-51), to ensure "continuity of government" in the event of what the document vaguely calls a "catastrophic emergency." Should the president determine that such an emergency has occurred, he and he alone is empowered to do whatever he deems necessary to ensure "continuity of government." This could include everything from canceling elections to suspending the Constitution to launching a nuclear attack.

REX 84

The Rex 84 Program was established on the reasoning that if a mass exodus of illegal aliens crossed the Mexican/US border, they would be quickly rounded up and detained in detention centers by FEMA. Rex 84 allowed many military bases to be closed down and to be turned into prisons. With half a million entering the US every year, not one of them has been put in a FEMA camp yet! What are they waiting for?

NATIONAL DEFENSE AUTHORIZATION ACT

Sect. 1042 of the 2007 National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA), "Use of the Armed Forces in Major Public Emergencies," gives the executive the power to invoke martial law. For the first time in more than a century, the president is now authorized to use the military in response to "a natural disaster, a disease outbreak, a terrorist attack or any other condition in which the President determines that domestic violence has occurred to the extent that state officials cannot maintain public order."

If the US government spends billions of dollars on Homeland Security, they scan all of our emails, record all of our telephone calls, and watch almost everything we do; because they expect a Muslim terrorist to blow up our country any minute, then why did they allow 9 million Muslims to come into our country?

ARMY TRAINING MANUAL

The manual states, “These operations (camp) may be performed as domestic civil support operations,” and adds that “The authority to approve resettlement such operations within U.S. territories,” would require a “special exception” to “The Posse Comitatus Act,” which can be obtained via “the President invoking his executive authority.” The document also makes reference to identifying detainees using their “social security number.”

PERSECUTION AT UNPRECEDENTED LEVELS

The Body of Christ today is suffering a degree of persecution not seen previously in our lifetime. In Central African Republic a serious humanitarian crisis is unfolding as the predominantly Christian population suffers terror at the hands of Islamic rebels. Afghan converts risk death not only in Afghanistan but also in India because the Afghan media is inciting violence against them, particularly Pastor Obaid. In Somalia, al-Shabaab routinely kills Somali converts.

Mustaf (13), who has already lost two Christian relatives to al-Shabaab, was recently kidnapped by militants seeking to draw his Christian parents out of hiding. For example on 30 August eleven Laos families (50 people) were expelled from their village and sent out into the bush for refusing to renounce Christ. On 1 September nine Catholics were massacred by Fulani Muslim gunmen in Nigeria's Kaduna State. On 4 September jihadists killed eight Syrian soldiers before seizing control of the Aramaic-speaking, Christian village of Maaloula in western Syria.

"The power of the Executive to cast a man into prison without formulating any charge known to the law, and particularly to deny him the judgment of his peers, is in the highest degree odious and is the foundation of all totalitarian government whether Nazi or Communist."

WASHINGTON (AP) -- The Federal Reserve on Wednesday downgraded its outlook for the U.S. economy for 2013 and 2014. In doing so, it underscored concerns that led it to maintain the pace of its stimulus.

The Fed predicted Wednesday that the economy will grow just 2 percent to 2.3 percent this year, down from its previous forecast in June of 2.3 percent to 2.6 percent growth.

Next year's economic growth will be a barely healthy 3 percent, the Fed predicts.

Fed officials decided to continue their $85-billion-a-month bond purchase program, surprising most economists, who had expected a slight reduction. The bond purchases have been designed to keep long-term loan rates low to encourage spending.

The Fed's policymakers expect the unemployment rate to fall to 7.1 percent to 7.3 percent by the end of 2013, slightly below its June forecast of 7.2 percent to 7.3 percent. It predicts that unemployment will fall as low as 6.4 percent next year, down from 6.5 percent in its June forecast.

The unemployment rate is now 7.3 percent.

The projections showed that 12 of the 17 officials on the Fed's policymaking committee think the Fed shouldn't begin raising rates until 2015. And two think the Fed shouldn't do so until 2016, one more than in June. Three chose 2014, the same as in June.

The Fed doesn't say which policymakers made which forecast.

FINANCES IN THESE DIFFICULT TIMES

We Are Now On The Verge Of A Historic Meltdown & Collapse

On the heels of a tremendous rally in gold and silver, today a man who has been involved in the financial markets for 50 years shocked King World News when he said that we are on the verge of a historic and catastrophic global financial “meltdown.” He also spoke about events that are unfolding behind the scenes at the White House right now. This is without question one of John Embry’s most powerful interviews ever.

Embry: “I guess I’m always unnerved as a result of what happened in April, the last time the President of the United States had a meeting with all of the bank heads, and two days later the price of gold was smashed for over $200. Now, the President is meeting with all of the heads of the various agencies, institutions, the Fed, and all of the other key money entities in the United States today. What’s that all about?”

But clearly if the President is having this meeting, there is a crisis unfolding somewhere in the background, and it could very well relate to the dollar, interest rates, and the massive derivatives market associated with interest rates....

“Rising interest rates are a killer in an over-levered economy, and that’s exactly what we’ve been seeing in the United States.

This surge in interest rates may have already seriously destabilized the entire financial system, and that’s why there is this meeting taking place in the White House today. The fact is that the vast majority of derivatives in the global financial system are related to interest rates.

Now, the entire financial system may be on the precipice of some sort of catastrophic event unfolding because of what we have already seen in the bond market, and how the derivatives are so heavily intertwined. Meaning, we may be on the verge of another disastrous derivatives meltdown.

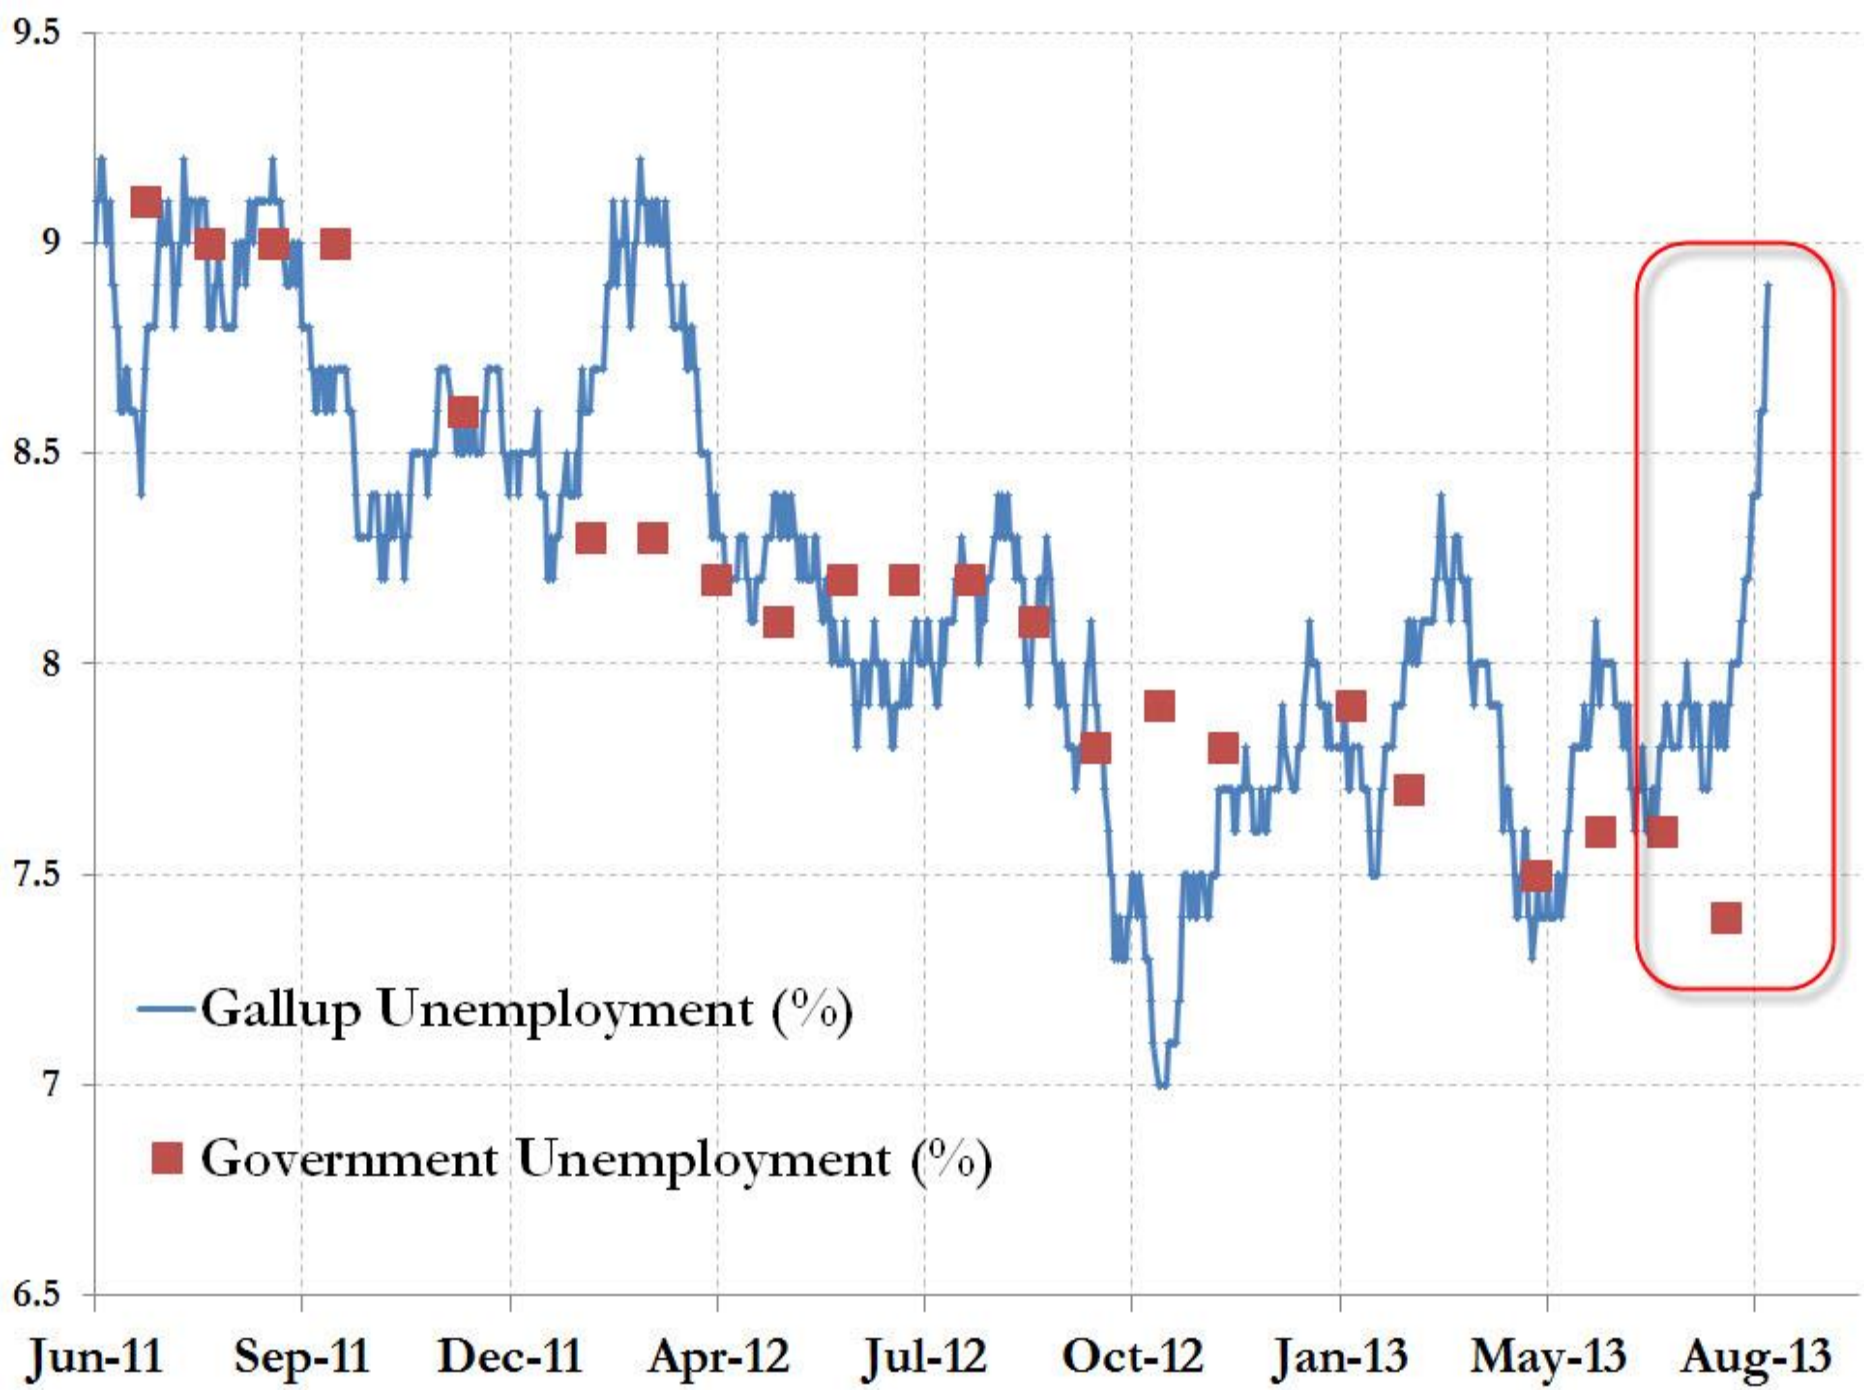

We have an unbelievable amount of interest rate derivatives in the financial system. So the winners theoretically take the profits on them, and the losers simply misprice them on their books. But as you get higher interest rates it becomes even more destabilizing.

I firmly believe the reason the President has called this meeting today is because if interest rates in the U.S. continue to rise, it could really unleash something disastrous. We are talking here about the possibility of a meltdown.

International Investors Dump $40.8 Billion in Treasuries, the Most Ever

Money and Markets

Foreign holders dumped a whopping $40.8 billion in long-term Treasuries, the biggest exodus from bonds in the history of the U.S.

Worse, June was actually the third month of mass dumping in the past four, for a total of $79 billion. China, the biggest holder of our bonds, unloaded $21.5 billion, while Japan, the second-largest holder, dumped $20.3 billion.

It wasn't just government bonds, either. Foreigners dumped $116 million of bonds made up of packaged U.S. mortgages. They sold $5.2 billion of Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac and Ginnie Mae bonds, and $5 billion in corporate bonds. And they unloaded $26.8 billion of U.S. stocks. All told, more international capital flowed out of U.S. markets than at any time in history, worse even than at the depths of the 2008 credit crisis.

State's unfunded pension debt will grow to more than $200 billion under new reporting rules

	Unfunded liability as currently reported	Unfunded liability under Moody's

JRS	$1.3 billion	$2.6 billion
GARS	$0.2 billion	$0.4 billion

UNITED STATES DOLLAR

China and Japan a few weeks ago sold $48 billion worth of U.S. Treasury Bonds in one day more than ever in history. Bernanke and the Fed are printing $85 billion per month ($40 billion to buy Mortgage Backed Securities and $45 billion to buy Treasuries). All foreign countries are buying less US Treasury bonds since June of this year. This is very bad news.

WHAT TO DO TO PREPARE FOR THIS?

1. Get a job and keep it
2. Start a job on something that makes money
3. Store cash at your home
4. Buy gold and silver eagles and keep it at home
5. Pay off your bills
6. Store food
7. Store water

8. Store guns & ammunition
9. Store toilet paper
10. Store tooth brush, tooth paste, shampoo, soap, etc.
11. Have something to cook on such as an outside gas cooker, fireplace, or solar cooker.
12. Store cooking oil, condiments, bowls, cups, etc.
13. Have a water filter- Big Berkey
